Campus Tours Welcome

Management Team member Susan Adle introduced Mission Haven to two women who attended the Horizons Bible Study class at Columbia seminary in August. She gave them the grand tour of our facilities.

If you are visiting from out of town and would like a tour, please contact us!

Deep Cleaning Revitalizing 211

After being occupied almost continuously for over 5 years, we have a short vacancy in 211 which allows us to deep clean the house and tend to some deferred maintenance items. Vacuuming mattresses, fixing faucets, emptying and re-stocking cabinets, moving furniture, painting, washing curtains, evaluating kitchen equipment, replacing linens, and thoroughly de-cluttering and refitting the basement have kept our local team members very busy!

Recipe Reminder

75th Anniversary Cookbook

Please send one of your favorite recipes to missionhavendecatur@gmail.com. Include your connection to Mission Haven and how it has impacted you. Guidelines and a sample submission can be found here.

The cookbook will be a celebration of food AND a celebration of the impact Mission Haven has had on those serving our great God in the U.S. and around the world!

Clothes Closet Volunteer Staff

We are indebted to our volunteers who sorted many donations we received over the summer. These generous women also staff shopping hours for residents and seminary students.

Roof Upkeep

No More Moss

We contracted a specialist to apply moss killer to the roof of 211, to clear all roofs of unwanted debris after summer storms, and to cut back limbs as needed.

Money Matters PW Support

As you make preparations to resume PW activities this fall, please consider adding Mission Haven as a line item in your budget or requesting a special offering at your next PW event. Remember, unlike many other ministries, ours depends almost exclusively on Presbyterian Women!

Thank you for your support!

Meal for Peace South Sudan

In July, Shelvis & Nancy Smith-Mather participated in two Meal for Peace events in the Presbytery of Greater Atlanta.

They updated attendees on their ministry with refugees who have been uprooted by civil war in South Sudan. Over 4 million South Sudanese were displaced to camps in Uganda, Sudan, and surrounding countries.

Shelvis & Nancy described the context, culture, and history and how they are partnering with a peacebuilding organization called RECONCILE.
